I am a great admirer of American history, and this time of year is so significant as July 4th represents the birth of our nation and its great story. The beginning came about because good people (as we all are) came together to create a new nation cloaked in liberty and justice. We are still very much a young nation and as we grow, we learn and change but our heart and goodness remain the same.

Coming this fall from the great Ken Burns we will have The American Revolution a six-part 12-hour documentary that examines how America's founding turned the world upside-down. Thirteen British colonies on the Atlantic Coast rose in rebellion, won their independence, and established a new form of government that radically reshaped the continent and inspired centuries of democratic movements around the globe. While we must wait until November to enjoy this new documentary this July you can still find many great programs celebrating America and its history including:

Iconic America: Where David Rubenstein examines the history of America through some of its most iconic symbols, objects and places, on location and in conversation with historical thinkers, community members and other experts. Together, they dive deep into each symbol's history and how its meaning has changed over time, using them as a gateway to understanding America's past and present. Airing Tuesdays at 8 p.m.

A Capitol Fourth: A tradition spanning 5 decades this year's concert will feature Jack Everly, The National Symphony Orchestra, The Choral Arts Society of Washington, Patric Lundy & The Ministers of Music, The United States Army Band "Pershing's Own" and many more. This long running concert special brings some of the greatest patriotic performers to your living room culminating with a spectacular fireworks show. Airing July 4th at 7 p.m.

This is just a small sample of the great programming in store for July. Happy fourth of July to you and thank you for watching.

CHANNEL 6.1 - HIGHLIGHTS

Alan Cumming's Most Luxurious Train Journeys: Scotland The award-winning actor embarks on an epic adventure aboard the Royal Scotsman, an iconic luxury train that promises an unparalleled odyssey through the majestic landscape of Scotland. Throughout the four-part series, Alan experiences the lavish VIP treatment of the Royal Scotsman, dives into the culinary creativity that defines each day's delectable offerings, and delves into the rich history and traditions of the destinations along the route. Mondays at 3 p.m.

Mysteries of the Pyramids with Dara Ó Briain Dara Ó Briain unravels the most intriguing mysteries surrounding the world's pyramids. Dara will explore the mysteries of these phenomenal structures and joining him is archaeologist Raksha Dave and Egyptologist Dr Chris Naunton. The program examines some of the questions still unanswered: 'How were the pyramids built using massive blocks of stone, so heavy that even today a modern crane would struggle?' or 'What were the pyramid's true function?', and 'If tombs, why has no-one ever discovered a Pharaoh in any of them?' July 13 at 3 p.m.

Homemade Live! This cooking show is taped before a live studio audience in Seattle Washington. Join chef Joel Gamoron and some of his celebrity friends as they cook, laugh, and make some new "homemade memories." Kathy Lee Gifford, Reggie Bush, Crystal Kung Minkoff, and Nigel Barker are among the guests introduced to viewers through the lens of food. The program is also a celebration of the recipes that shaped who they are, and the stories behind each bite. Saturdays at 9:30 a.m. starting July 19

CHANNEL 6.2 CREATE SHOWCASE

Each week Create experts bring you seasonal programming in five-hour blocks beginning each Friday starting at 8 p.m., Saturday starting at 9 a.m. and Sunday at 11 a.m.

American Traditions July 4-6

In a nod to Independence Day, we're taking some time to enjoy some maker traditions — in the kitchen, the workshop, and on the road. Sit back and enjoy some traditional creations and their stories with some of your favorite Create hosts.

Cook's Country Southern Style Summer July 11-13

Southern staples shine in a weekend dedicated to the delicious, the fresh, and the comfort classics. Join Cook's Country for a trip that winds through the Southeast and into Texas for delights that will go straight to the top of your recipe pile.

Focus on Flowers July 18-20

It's no secret that flowers are a simple and beautiful way to improve your well-being, but do you know about some of their other superpowers? Find out as J Schwanke brings the focus on flowers in ten back-to-back episodes of Life in Bloom.

Practice Makes Perfect July 25-27

Beautiful things are created one stitch at a time, and our needle arts pros are here to get you started! Cozy up for a marathon of quilting, knitting, and crocheting to inspire your next handiwork.

CHANNEL 6.3 EMERGE

Professor T Professor Jasper Tempest is obsessed with cleanliness, structure and order. But his genius for solving crimes means he constantly has to get his hands dirty, helping the police to crack their most difficult cases. Saturdays and Sundays at 6 p.m.

Real Crown: Inside the House of Windsor Told in present tense and full of unexpected bombshells, this is the story of a family that has lived under intense public scrutiny their entire lives. Prince Harry recently described it as akin to living in The Truman Show. Like most families, the royal family has had to deal with crises - feuds, heartbreak, sibling rivalries, affairs, divorces and deaths. But they also have had to face assassination attempts, kidnappings, tabloid scandals and terrorist bombs. Across the last seven decades, Queen Elizabeth II steered them through each and every one of these predicaments. With her reign now ended, The Real Crown captures the powerful real-life human drama of the greatest remaining dynasty in Europe. Narrated by Adjoa Andoh (Bridgerton). July 27-31 at 7 p.m.
