Contact is published monthly for KMOS PBS members and viewers. We work to ensure accuracy at press time, but last minute changes are sometimes unavoidable. We welcome your comments, questions and suggestions.

Public television has always been about more than programs. It is about connection.

The shows you enjoy on KMOS PBS have the power to inform, inspire, and bring people together. One of the simplest and most meaningful ways to strengthen public media is to pass along what you love.

When you tell a friend about a series that moved you, made you think, or simply helped you unwind, you are offering them something valuable. Many people spend time scrolling, unsure of what to watch. A personal recommendation cuts through that noise. Sharing your enthusiasm for a favorite PBS program may introduce someone to content they would not have discovered on their own.

Even better, watching together can create lasting moments. Sitting down as a family for Masterpiece, following the culinary journeys on America's Test Kitchen, exploring science with NOVA, or enjoying the warmth of All Creatures Great and Small can spark conversation and shared experience. Historical documentaries by Ken Burns, compelling stories on Frontline, or the joy of Antiques Roadshow offer opportunities to learn and reflect side by side.

Chris DiMaso
 Manager of Community Support

Public media has a unique ability to bridge generations. Grandparents and grandchildren can laugh together at familiar characters. Friends can discuss a documentary long after the credits roll. Couples can make a weekly tradition of tuning in to a beloved series.

Your love for PBS is powerful. When you share it, you extend the impact of thoughtful storytelling and trusted programming throughout our community. Thank you for being part of KMOS PBS and for inviting others to discover the programs that matter to you.

Puzzle Lady Meet Bakerbury's newest and most famous resident - Cora Felton, AKA "The Puzzle Lady." Cora's eccentric, no-nonsense approach proves a perfect way to outwit the murderers, con men and corrupt officials that stand in her way. Creation Rose This documentary explores the design, construction and cultural impact of Washington National Cathedral's "third great eye" - the nearly 30-foot diameter stained-glass West Rose window. You will be transported back in time to discover not only how the window was created, but also what inspired both the daring choice of its radical theme of "creation," and the decision to entrust a 45-year-old modern artist to complete the sacred space. Drawing from letters from the architect and artist, along with archival interviews with LeCompte and his collaborators, the program weaves together an inspiring story of artistry. April 5 at 2 p.m.

Wilding Wilding tells the story of a young couple who dare to bet the future of their failing, four-hundred-year-old estate on the power of nature. Relive how the pair battled entrenched traditions, and entrusted their farm's recovery to a motley mix of animals both tame and wild. It is the beginning of a grand experiment that will become one of the most significant rewilding projects in Europe. April 23 at 7 p.m.

It's a question rarely explored, and one that will take her on a revelatory, and very unexpected, journey. For the first time, she is going to tell this American story from the perspective of Britain. By interrogating this untold standpoint of the conflict, she'll reveal that this wasn't just a pivotal moment in the forging of the USA... but in the re-making of Britain too. NATURE
Becoming Elephant:
The Orphans
of Reteti

*Premieres April 3
at 7 p.m.*

Set in the remote wilds of northern Kenya, follow the remarkable journey of orphaned elephants at Reteti, the first community-owned elephant sanctuary in Africa. Raised by Samburu keepers who act as surrogate parents, these elephants, many rescued from poaching, drought, or human-wildlife conflict, are nurtured back to health and prepared for life in the wild.

From tiny calves taking their first bottle to older elephants facing release, the two-part series captures intimate moments of struggle, healing, and transformation. Alongside the elephants, it also tells the story of the local community, especially the women known as “milk mamas,” whose care, knowledge, and resilience are reshaping conservation from the ground up.
