ON THE COVER

Discover a group of remarkable chimpanzees that could hold clues to how we became human.

The chimps in Fongoli, Senegal have adapted to the extreme heat and dryness of the savanna woodlands, at the very limits of where chimps can survive. For years, these chimps were rarely seen. NATURE traces the remarkable 25-year story of how American anthropologist Jill Pruetz and local chimp expert Dondo Johnny Kante got so close to the Fongoli chimps to uncover their unique behavior, including hunting with spears, digging wells, and more.

Watch NATURE HumanLike: The Chimps of Fongoli Wednesday, November 11 at 7 p.m. on KMOS channel 6.1.

Contact is published monthly for KMOS PBS members and viewers. We work to ensure accuracy at press time, but last minute changes are sometimes unavoidable. We welcome your comments, questions and suggestions.

November gives us a good reason to slow down and take stock of what we have, and the people who helped make it possible.

At KMOS PBS, we have a long list of people to thank. At the top of that list are our members.

Your support has carried KMOS through an important year. In 2026, you helped keep trusted PBS programs on the air, gave children a safe place to learn and explore, and made it possible for us to continue telling stories that reflect the people and communities of Central Missouri.

You may see the finished program on your television, but there is much more behind it. Your membership helps keep our station running, our programs available, and our community events happening. It helps a child discover a love of reading through PBS KIDS.

It gives families access to programs they can watch together. It brings science, history, music, and stories from around the world into homes across our region.

That is what your membership means to us.

This year has also reminded us that public media depends on people who believe it is worth having. You have shown us that belief with your membership, your renewals, and the many ways you continue to stand behind KMOS.

We do not take that support for granted.

As Thanksgiving approaches, we simply want to say thank you. Thank you for choosing KMOS. Thank you for making public television part of your life. And thank you for helping us remain a source of learning, connection, and discovery for Central Missouri.

Thank you

When you watch KMOS, you are seeing the result of thousands of people making a choice to support something they value.

You are one of those people.

We are grateful for you and for everything your support has made possible in 2026.

CHANNEL 6.1 - HIGHLIGHTS

Great Performances at the Met "El Último Sueno de Frida y Diego" American composer Gabriela Lena Frank makes her Met debut with her first opera, a magical-realist portrait of Mexico's painterly power couple Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera. Fashioned as a reversal of the Orpheus and Euridice myth, the story depicts Frida leaving the underworld on the Day of the Dead and reuniting with Diego. The famously feuding pair briefly relive their tumultuous love, embracing both the passion and the pain before bidding the land of the living a final farewell. Sunday, November 1 at 3 p.m.

Coming Home: From Shadowland to Spiritworld Follow the Kasha Band of Pomo Indians as they undertake an extraordinary effort to reclaim their ancestral lands on the Sonoma Coast after 170 years of displacement. Interweaving the little-known history of Russian colonization in California with a modern story of negotiation, diplomacy, and ceremony, the film shows how land repatriation becomes a powerful act of cultural renewal. Monday, November 2 at 9 p.m.

Medicine Ball Native college athletes navigate college life and basketball at the University of Minnesota Morris located on the site of a former Native boarding school revealing how basketball became a powerful symbol of resilience, hope, and cultural pride in Native communities. Monday, November 9 at 9 p.m.

Marble Hall Murders on Masterpiece Worlds collide when Susan, hired to edit the latest Atticus Pund book, finds herself a suspect in a murder case. Within the novel, Pund is visiting the Isle of Corfu when he becomes embroiled in the suspicious death of a wealthy elderly woman. Tuesdays at 7 p.m.

Waal River Crossing: 1944 Narrated by actor Paul Giamatti, this documentary reveals the story behind one of World War II's most heroic missions. The paratroopers of the 82nd Airborne Division were given a suicide mission: to cross one of Europe's largest and fastest-flowing rivers in broad daylight under the watchful eye of their German adversaries. They were outmanned and outgunned, but somehow the American paratroopers were able to complete their mission and wrestle two bridges away from German troops in Holland. Tuesday, November 10 at 12 p.m.

Frederick Law Olmstead: Designing America The story of the man who made public parks an essential part of American life. To Olmsted, a park was both a work of art and a necessity for urban life. His efforts to preserve nature created an "environmental ethic" decades before the environmental movement became a force in American politics. Thursday, November 19 at 7 p.m.

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT IN AMERICA

FROM EXECUTIVE PRODUCERS
KEN BURNS AND SAM POLLARD

DIRECTED BY LYNN NOVICK

PREMIERES
MON NOV 16 8/7c

We Chose to Go To the Moon November 10 at 7 p.m.

Recorded live at Carnegie Hall, historian John Monsky tells the exhilarating story of America's journey to the Moon and the heroes in and outside of NASA who made it possible. Featuring iconic music from the 1960s and '70s performed by Broadway stars and a live orchestra, alongside rare archival imagery and historic flags, this living documentary brings the Space Race vividly to life.

Rohna Classified

November 6 at 9 p.m.

Nearly 2,000 American soldiers board an overcrowded transport ship, unaware of its non-functioning lifeboats and inadequate lifebelts. When one of World War II's first radio-guided missiles strikes, the Rohona sinks, claiming 1,015 lives, the single greatest loss of life at sea by enemy action in U.S. history. Government officials deflect responsibility by declaring the attack classified.

Navy Heroes of Normandy

November 7 at 9 p.m.

Despite the casualties of D-Day — 1,068 Americans died in the initial assault on Hitler's fortified coastline — no monument stood to honor their sacrifices. Navy Heroes of Normandy chronicles the building and dedication of the first-ever U.S. Navy monument in Normandy. In an emotional climax, a large gathering of dignitaries, French citizens and D-Day veterans witness the installation and dedication of the 12-foot-tall bronze sculpture on France's Utah Beach, a long-overdue official recognition for the crucial role they played on that fateful day.

A Final Landing on Iwo Jima November 8 at 2 p.m.

A "then and now" look at the Japanese island at the heart of a brutal World War II battle, A Final Landing on Iwo Jima follows two men as they visit the historic war site. One is a 100-year-old veteran of the 4th Marine Division who returns to Iwo Jima for the final time after being wounded there in the savage battle decades earlier. The other is the son of a marine who has spent decades searching for details of his father's time on the island with little luck. He finally visits Iwo Jima to piece his dad's wartime puzzle together. Narrated by sportscaster Jim Nantz, the film details events leading up to, through and after the Battle of Iwo Jima via veteran interviews, archival material and recreations.

France Made with Love

November 30 at 7 p.m.

The newest film from the Emmy-winning Made with Love series, embarks on a captivating journey across France, showcasing the exquisite craftsmanship and renowned cultural charm of the country's most remarkable artisans.

From the iconic streets of Paris to Bordeaux, Normandy, La

Borne, Occitanie and more, viewers will be immersed in the rich heritage of centuries-old traditions and the distinct, influential style of France.

From the meticulous handiwork of a Parisian glovemaker, who "transforms gloves into soft jewelry," to the culinary expertise of a distinguished chef whose recipe for L'Omelette de al Mère Poulant was created in 1888, to a "Petalist," who works with flowers, these skilled craftspeople create timeless masterpieces that reflect both innovation and a deep-rooted connection to heritage. These makers illustrate the unique allure, innate passion, and elegant taste of French craftsmanship.
