ON THE COVER

Nearly a hundred years ago, Bertha Gifford was arrested and tried for murder. But that proved to be just the beginning of the story.

Explore firsthand accounts and contemporary media coverage to navigate the sometimes contentious and often debated guilt of Missouri's first suspected female serial killer—and the 18 deaths over two decades.

"This story is such a fascinating part of our history. Bertha's trial captured national attention in 1928 and it's still being debated now. That tells me how important the conversation is." –Tim Oar, program producer.

Watch Bertha Gifford: Sinner or Saint? Tuesday, October 6 at 8 p.m. on KMOS channel 6.1.

Contact is published monthly for KMOS PBS members and viewers. We work to ensure accuracy at press time, but last minute changes are sometimes unavoidable. We welcome your comments, questions and suggestions.

It never fails; I can't decide what season I want to be in. During the depths of Winter, I can't help but long for Summer, barbecues, and swimming. When the temperature skyrockets, the humidity is thick, and my A/C can't keep up, I want to feel a brisk breeze blow through me. And now with the dog days wrapping up and looking ahead to Fall, I am beginning to dread the impending shift to Winter again. However, here in central Missouri, we have the best 3 weeks of Fall anyone could hope for.

With Autumn's arrival, household schedules shift to the change of season. Kids are going back to school, vacations are wrapping up, and we settle into a rhythm. We at KMOS PBS begin to shift gears, too. We have launched our Fall programming and are now looking forward to engaging in fundraising activities. Our mission is funded by viewers like you, and the last quarter of the year is important.

October brings two big initiatives to KMOS PBS that we are excited to bring to you. The first is Cartober. Did we mash "Car" and "October" together to make a new word? Yes, yes, we did. Cartober is an annual push to solicit car donations from our supporters. If you have a car you don't know what to do with, consider donating it to KMOS PBS. It is easy, and it is a tax-deductible donation. You will get fair market value for your gift. Simply call 877-566-7886, and the good people at Charitable Adult Rides & Services will handle your donation.

The second activity you should be aware of is that October is Planned Giving Month. This is the right time for you to begin making plans for a Qualified Charitable Donation from your IRA or to review your will with your estate professional. KMOS PBS is a qualified public charitable organization and can easily accept gifts from these charitable funds. Legacy gifts help keep KMOS PBS here for generations.

Inspector George Gently

Thursdays at 8 p.m. premiering October 8

This British television crime drama is loosely based on the Inspector Gently novels written by Alan Hunter. Martin Shaw stars as Inspector George Gently, an incorruptible cop transplanted from London to the North East of England in the mid-1960s. Gently and his cocky young protege, DS John Bacchus, of the North East Constabulary investigate brutal crimes as they confront the social and political changes of the era. This acclaimed detective drama is centered in New Castle upon Tyne, Northumberland and County Durham.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE Jesse James

Tuesday, October 13 at 8 p.m.

The story of Jesse James remains one of America's most cherished tales ... and one of its most fictitious. James, so the legend goes, was a western outlaw, though, he never went west; America's Robin Hood, though he robbed from the poor as well as the rich; a gunfighter, though his victims were almost always unarmed. Less heroic than brutal, James was a member of a vicious band of Missouri guerrillas during the Civil War. With a life steeped in violence and bloodshed, he met what was perhaps the most fitting end.

Samhain: The Birth of Halloween

October 31 at 7 p.m.

Michael Londra, host of the popular travel series Ireland with Michael, embarks on a spine-tingling journey through Ireland to uncover Samhain, the ancient Celtic festival behind Halloween. Blending rich history, haunting folklore, and modern traditions, the film reveals how this ancient celebration evolved into a holiday now observed in many parts of the world.

Dracula: Theater of the Mind

October 31 at 8 p.m.

It's radio you can see, complete with actors, music and a crew of sound effects technicians, creating it all right before your eyes. The Emmy Award Winning, Dracula: Theater of the Mind follows the story of a small band of mortals who faced the most powerful vampire of them all. It is 1888 and Lucy Westenra has fallen ill. Her fiancée, Jack Seward has brought her to his sanitarium. Desperate, Jack sends for Van Helsing, a specialist in obscure diseases. This leads to their encounter with Count Dracula.

Dia de los Muertos

October 31 at 9 p.m.

Celebrate the popular tradition observed by people of Mexican heritage everywhere with a new musical and cultural fiesta featuring rock greats Los Lobos, the salsa-rap-reggae-funk band Ozomatli and the all-female mariachi band Flor de Toloache.

In Search of Edgar Allan Poe

October 31 at 11 p.m.

This award-winning documentary explores the triumphant yet tragic story of the brilliant poet, master short story writer, and influential critic, Edgar Allan Poe. It recounts how he invented the detective genre, pioneered science fiction, and shaped the horror tale, but was plagued by alcohol, lost loves, and a penchant for self-destruction. The series sheds new light on his mysterious death.

Nature | Sesame Street and the Great Elephant Adventure

Premiering Wednesday, October 14 at 7 p.m.

Join Elmo and his Sesame Street friends on a once-in-a-lifetime African safari adventure in a special PBS Nature crossover. After adopting an orphaned elephant online, Elmo, Abby Cadabby, and Nina travel to the Sheldrick Wildlife Trust in Kenya to meet the young elephant and her keepers. In their first-ever safari, the Sesame Street friends embark on a journey that takes them from the caring confines of the elephant sanctuary to the unpredictable African bush, where they come face to face with some of nature's most iconic wildlife, including lions, zebras, giraffes and hippos.
