ON THE COVER

How nearly five centuries of ancient Rome democracy was overthrown in just 16 years...
by one man.

This new historical docudrama tells the story of a brazen power grab that saw Julius Caesar consolidate the vast Roman Republic in his own hands.

The series is told through the eyes of an expert cast of British and American historians, scholars, and political operatives. Illustrated with artful dramatic moments and packed with contemporary resonances, Julius Caesar has all the elements of the best political thrillers, with complex power dynamics playing out for enormous stakes.

CELEBRATE THE EARTH WITH KMOS PBS!

April is a time dedicated to celebrating our remarkable planet Earth, a place we are incredibly fortunate to call home. Reflecting on the wonders of the world, whether it's the diverse cuisines we enjoy, the breathtaking natural landscapes, or the fascinating creatures that inhabit our planet, fills us with gratitude and awe. At KMOS PBS, we strive to provide you with a window of discovery through our specially curated programs like Nature and NOVA, offering fresh perspectives on the world around us. Your generous donations play a vital role in supporting our mission to inspire wonder, curiosity, and imagination in our community.

While we are thinking about the environment, let's talk about recycling. Specifically, recycling your old car! We all know the saying "one man's junk is another man's treasure." This holds true with your old vehicle too. Making a vehicle donation to KMOS PBS means you are clearing your valuable space whilst making a tax deductible donation to a worthwhile non-profit! Go to kmos.careasy.org to make your donation today!

Matter of Mind: My Parkinson's

Directed by Anna Moot-Levin and Laura Green. Three individuals—a political cartoonist, a mother turned boxing coach, and an optician—navigate their lives with resourcefulness and determination in the face of Parkinson's disease. KMOS will be screening this engaging and educational documentary in a town near you. All events are FREE and open to the public and you can find out more on our website at kmos.org/indielens/

Thank you to our budding central Missouri authors who entered this year's KMOS Kids Writing Contest! We have enjoyed reading everybody's entries and the winners will be announced in May on our website: kmos.org/pbs-kids/writerscontest/

Thank you for all of your generosity over the years. KMOS PBS is only able to thrive because of you! Make sure to follow us on our social media and visit our webpage at www.KMOS.org to stay up to date on programming, news, and events!

What is free speech? Is it an outdated idea? What about hate speech? The three-part series Free To Speak underscores how free speech is necessary for human survival as it presents thought-provoking, ironic, and often heartbreaking stories. Host Nadine Strossen is joined by free speech experts, critics, and defenders to examine its power and controversy historically and today.

To the Ends of the Earth: Birds of East Africa April 6 at 5 p.m.

Introduced by esteemed conservationist Jane Goodall and narrated by National Geographic's Bill Jones, To the Ends of the Earth: Birds of East Africa brings into focus what humanity has in common with other species - from competition for mates and territory to the joys and worries of raising our young. Professional wildlife photographer Todd Gustafson captures stories of competition, courtship, family, hunting and flight to illustrate the hidden life of East African birds.
